

64. A method of claim 63 wherein placental xenobiotic exposure of a fetus is reduced.

65. A method of claim 63 wherein placental xenobiotic exposure of a fetus is increased.

66. A drug identified by a method of claim 33.

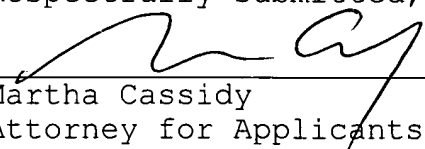

67. A drug identified by a method of claim 38.--

REMARKS

The amendments made to claims 33 and 45 are intended to correct improper multiple dependent claims. New claims 66 and 67 are intended to claim subject matter cancelled in the amendments to claims 33 and 45. New claims 63-67 are added to more clearly claim an embodiment of the present invention. The new claims are fully supported throughout the application and particularly at page 14, paragraph 48. Applicants now request examination on the merits and favorable consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

By
